Operation Christmas Child

Church Relations Associate

Organization Information

Samaritan's Purse is a nondenominational evangelical Christian organization providing spiritual and physical aid to hurting people around the world. Since 1970, Samaritan's Purse has helped meet needs of people who are victims of war, poverty, natural disasters, disease, and famine with the purpose of sharing God's love through His Son, Jesus Christ.

Operation Christmas Child is a project of Samaritan's Purse, a Christian international relief organization providing spiritual and physical aid to hurting people around the world. Through gift filled shoe boxes, Operation Christmas Child seeks to bring joy and hope to children suffering from poverty, famine, war and natural disaster. This project equips church leaders with a tangible way for their congregations to do their part in the fulfilling the great commission.

Position Description

Associates needed to provide support for Church Relations initiatives for Operation Christmas Child through the high season of Church Relations efforts. These associates positions represent an invaluable resource to staff and volunteers in the region as those who strengthen relationships with past and current Operation Christmas Child partner churches.

Basic duties include support of Field Office staff and Operation Christmas Child volunteers in their contact with and service to churches, while regularly representing the ministry of OCC in communication with churches of many different denominations. Some localized travel required.

Positions will require 40 hours per week, from July through November.

Position Qualifications

Solid organizational skills and clarity and cordiality in all forms of communication (telephone, email, face-to-face) a must.

Candidates will have completed two or more years of college education, and demonstrate flexibility, skill in written and oral communication and a sense of passion to facilitate involvement in the global outreach of OCC. Proficiency in Microsoft Office required.

Positions will require 40 hours per week, from July through November.

To Apply

Applicants must apply online at samaritanspurse.org to be considered for this position. Resume and cover letter can be submitted online along with application.

Please include location preference when completing application.

Locations may include: Altamont, NY (Northeast), Xenia, OH (Great Lakes), Charlotte, NC (Carolinas), Alpharetta, GA (Southeast), Tacoma, WA (Northwest), Overland Park, KS (Lower Midwest), TX/LA (Hurst, TX)

House parents

Eagle Ranch

P. O. Box 7200

Chestnut Mountain, GA 30502

770-967-8500

Eagle Ranch, a Christian children's home in Northeast Georgia, has a ministry opportunity for couples to serve as houseparents. Houseparent couples live full-time on the Ranch in one of our 10 lovely homes. They provide care, nurturing and structure for up to seven children. They are supported by an Assistant Counselor and a Licensed Professional Counselor. Our houseparent couples tend to stay at the Ranch for an average of 4 years, and we do like for candidates to keep a 3 to 5 year timeframe in mind as they consider the commitment.

To be considered, couples must be married at least 3 years and have no more than 2 children living at home. No previous children's home experience is necessary – we will provide training. For a complete job description and Q&A, we encourage interested couples to visit www.EagleRanch.org.

Samaritan's Purse – Japanese translators

Japan's northeastern coast was struck by a 9.0-magnitude earthquake followed by a giant tsunami on March 11. Huge waves engulfed towns and villages, sweeping away houses, cars, boats, and trains.

Samaritan's Purse quickly responded... and is continuing the response with construction projects. Our team in Japan is in need of Japanese Interpreters who will work in an assigned region/area to assist the rebuilding and construction of homes. Responsibilities include the communications with team members, expatriate and local staff, and volunteers.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Provide Japanese to English and well as English to Japanese translation
- Will be assigned to other work duties to assist in overall project completion
- Follow policies and procedures of Samaritan's Purse as set forth in the Samaritan's Purse Policy Manual
- Attend daily morning devotions and participate in prayer support for the ministry, its donors and volunteers
- Maintain a strong Christian witness to colleagues, vendors, charitable beneficiaries, and the general public

- Be sensitive to local Japanese customs and culture

QUALIFICATIONS

- Fluency in Japanese and English
- Effective verbal Communication skills

Length of contract: 6-12 months

Open until filled

Target date to the field: June-August 2011

TO APPLY: Go to www.samaritanspurse.org. Under "Who We Are" choose "Employment Listings", then click on "International Positions." Please complete the on-line application and attach a cover letter and resume.

Man in the Mirror, founded by Patrick Morley, is hiring 330 men. Man in the Mirror is launching a new career path in men's discipleship – working to strengthen the efforts of local churches. Find out more, and apply to be a part of this history changing initiative at: www.mimareadirectors.org.

For more information, e-mail: 330men@maninthemirror.org

Contact: Jarred Boyd

Job Description:

POSITION PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

The vision of Man in the Mirror is to help every church disciple every man. This position is part of a national movement to equip 30,000 churches to collectively disciple 10,000,000 new men by 2020. Specifically, each Area Director is responsible for implementing The Journey to Biblical Manhood with 100 churches in their community within the first three years by forging meaningful relationships with area leaders.

ESSENTIAL JOB FUNCTIONS

This position requires a uniquely gifted and dynamic individual – one who has character, confidence, charisma and high energy. Interested candidates may submit a Preliminary Appraisal.

Major Responsibilities

1. Assess the market: Conduct a thorough study of the local church community and its various ministries in your area. Identify the churches that are ready to engage immediately with our ministry and others worth pursuing right away for near-term engagement. Begin to serve additional church leaders in the community to build meaningful relationships with the intention of engaging them as partners over time.
2. Build an advisory team: Identify and select key community influencers and role models who have a passion for discipling men and are committed to our vision and willing to serve on the Advisory Council for the Area Director.
3. Connect with key leaders in churches: Identify and recruit leaders within individual churches whom you can enable and support in discipling men in their church/community.
4. Recruit churches: Proactively connect with and engage church leaders and pastors regarding the benefits and opportunities related to discipling men in the local church. Explain The Journey to Biblical Manhood, and establish partnerships with them in this ministry.
5. Communicate/Consult/Design/Sell: Effectively coach leaders in how to implement The Journey to Biblical Manhood and provide ongoing consultative services including resource identification, training, encouragement and feedback as needed.
6. Build and maintain a meaningful network: Continue to build meaningful relationships with churches, and provide ongoing information, assistance and support as they implement The Journey to Biblical Manhood. Serve as an engaging role model and reliable, capable resource.
7. Measure/ROI/Results: Be accountable for solid execution against pre-identified goals/targets and implementation plans, and demonstrate these results through pre- and post-church assessments and ongoing status/progress reports.
8. Sustain: Secure adequate and accountable self-funding status through an effective donor relations strategy. Manage the budget with wise stewardship.
9. Organization: Build and maintain transparent, collaborative, and effective working relationships with the leadership and other area directors of Man in the Mirror.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND ABILITIES REQUIRED

- A passion for men’s ministry within the local church; experience a plus.
- High Biblical standards of leadership, integrity, morality and faithfulness.
- Willing to focus on essentials and not emphasize or champion points of theology outside our statement of faith; sensitive to denominational differences.
- Results-oriented and a self-starter with a strong work ethic.
- Has a professional presence and poise; conveys credibility and commands attention.
- Able to build and maintain financial self-support within predefined parameters.
- Experience in developing and delivering successful presentations to small and large groups; training experience is desirable.
- An independent thinker who also values collective IQ and collaboration.
- Able to create systems and processes for implementation, documentation and measurement.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills and an engaging communication style.
- Relates well to and effectively demonstrates genuine care for people.
- Proficient in Microsoft® Office and able to use current business technologies.
- A degree in business or marketing is preferred.

WORKING CONDITIONS

The Area Director is to work out of a home office or other space that it is the responsibility of the Area Director to secure. The Area Director is expected to be equipped with a computer, printer, phone, fax/scanner and other tools. The Area Director will work full time, including some weeknights and weekends, based on the availability of the pastors and leaders served. The Area Director must be willing to travel one or two times per week within the director's assigned area and nationally at least a few times each year.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

- Possess 3 – 5 years in a leadership position with a ministry, business or other organization.
- Satisfy background and reference checks.
- Demonstrate the unconditional support of a local pastor and at least 2 other Christians.
- Demonstrate the ability to manage a personal and office budget so that income is commensurate with expenses and debt.
- Adhere to Man in the Mirror's conflict of interest policy .
- Concur with Man in the Mirror's Guiding Principles
- Adhere to Man in the Mirror's code of conduct.
- Agree with Man in the Mirror's Statement of Faith
- Possess a reliable car insured to the minimum extent required by Man in the Mirror and a current driver’s license

SUCCESS FACTORS

Near-Term Goal: Help 100 churches disciple 30 new men each within the first three years (within denominational or geographical boundaries) by implementing the Journey to Biblical Manhood.
